

narrator-

On the evening of 23rd feb. a huge party was organised at the terrace of Mr. Sharma's villa. Celebrating Armaan's birthday. It was a happening party ever, guests were fully insane into drinks and dancing. All the near and dear ones of Armaan were invited to the party including his teachers and collage friends and other relatives which includes his uncle Mr.Kapoor he was fond of astrology and has varied information in numerology and was a taro card reader. Everybody praises Armaan for his intelligence and managing skills including his elder brother Mr. Vikram .In fact it was a surprise party to Armaan by his elder brother and the CEO of the company. His teachers and his colleagues also praised him and highlighted his potential. He worked according to his calibre and he is eating the sweet fruits today. He has always been in good books of everyone. He has succeeded in all the tasks that he has taken up. To this Mr. Kapoor gets a big yes to his cards and verdicts. As before dinner Mr.Kappor starts reading the taro cards. After hearing the verdicts Armaan responds very efficiently and from that very moment we see a transition in him-his behaviour, his approach. the discussion leads to the bedroom as well. Armaan is trying to cease the talk but Shree that is Armaan's wife is very consistent about it and indirectly starts brainwashing him over the essence of numerology and astrology. She highlights the authenticity of all what Mr.Kapoor has been doing all his life. She starts examples of his success. She transits to talking about how Armaan should now become new icon to multimillionaire industry. Listening to this Armaan shows interest but in response he starts talking about how Vikram is well admired with a dynamic personality like him there is nobody with the high potential and abilities who can take his place.

By hearing this Shree gets a Bit taken aback. She starts telling him that he should be impactful than what his elder brother is.

You are the most capable and should be person to replace Vikram.

You still have a long way to go. At thirty if you are at this level you can be double of what you are now in your life. It's now or never.

But Armaan stays adamant and is ready to put his foot down. Shree does not give up and keeps on praising and convincing him.

To this he shows no response but at the back of his mind he has thoughts about all that his wife has been telling.

The argument took way nowhere and eventually both of them slept.

Sharma's have business over a global scale and huge widespread and an organised company. They are very renowned because of their industry and even as people.

Being a multimillionaire company they are functioning in varied countries and serving millions and millions of people, satisfying their needs as per their standards.

Before dinner Mr.Kappor starts reading the taro cards. Everybody grows as fond of his reading that nobody was ready to go for dinner.

Being a multimillionaire company they are functioning in varied productions. Mr.Vikram is a CEO of the company and is very known and liked person because of his good deeds. Mr.Armaan is the managing director of the company and is very well known for his managing skills as mentioned before. His position in the company is also high but not as much as Mr. Vikram that is what pinches his wife now and then. She tries to provoke and her level of greed has increased as specially after the bday party. Armaan's thoughts have also been changed after hearing all the praises about his calibre and verdicts. Shree's ideas added the fuel to fire and even he began thinking that in spite of having such high calibre he was holding a post of managing director he kept all his thoughts to him and did not share them with anyone. He was planning something really big in his mind because he already knew that nobody will be able to replace Vikram until he is alive. His respect for his brother was now replaced by his greed. He decided to kill his own brother. It is very rightly said that ethics and relations also loses its position when greed and ambition changes thee mind of a person.

He decided to kill Vikram by adding the poison into his wine. Nobody can ever think of his such deeds as Vikraam has two sons Smit and Sahil who considered Armaan at their fathers place they were very fond of him and considered Armaan as the closest person to them besides there father.

On final evening as usual both the brothers were sitting together and were planning to order some drinks Armaan thought of it as the best chance to add poison into the red wine. They both were having drinks in their own twenty storey office. Before Vikram raises his hand to ring the bell Armaan himself got up and went towards the pantry to fetch the glass of wine himself. The illusions began, it seemed as if the poison instead of grasping the brother, it was poisoning himself. He could feel the bile rising in his throat, the water droplets in form of sweat began perspiring and shirt. Looking at the bottle of poison, with trembling and shaking hands he pours the drops of poison into the red wine glass and holds it in his hand with utmost fear. He heads back to the room where the men were seated and they have the drinks and Armaan makes an excuse that he had to go home early that day because of the function at his in laws place he meets his brother for the last time and drives his car towards home. Before he reaches home Vikram's friend who was even his personal assistant; Mr Tushar called Armaan and asked him to reach the hospital as soon as possible. Armaan went to the hospital but Mr. Tushar tells that Vikram died on the way towards hospital they thought it to be a heart attack and called all the family members at Sharma's villa. Armaan and Shree behaved as if they were the most affected people by his death and cried day and night in front of all the relatives and workers of the company. They showed that they were most concerned about Sahil and Smit Mr. Tushar convinced the family to get a post mortem report done on Vikram, as death of a young person like vikram was unusual. . Sahil was 18 and Smit was 20 years old they were too young to bear the pain of their father's death still they accepted their father's death In a practical way than expected. After few weeks of their father's death both of them decided to get training about their business abroad. One went to London and other to Australia handing over the Indian business to Armaan and made him the new CEO of the company.

Though they seemed to be very practical about their father's death it deep down did question them. Mr.Tushar was actually the most concerned and affected by the death of Mr. Vikram. He actually had a doubt on Armaan as he was the last person to meet Mr . Vikram before his death and it never usually happened so that Armaan goes early than the decided working hours of the factory. He keeps his doubt to himself and starts looking forward for the assurance and evidence towards Vikrams death. He consults the post-mortem department to find the reason for Vikram's death. He discovers that it was a murder and not a natural death the first thing that strikes his mind after discovering was the changing behaviour of Armaan his brotherhood changing into unusual behaviour. He deliberately goes to Armaan and talks about what he discovered just to see his reaction towards the murder. After hearing what Mr. Tushar had to say Armaan's face mirrored the worried and fearful looks. Tushar starts to collect evidences against armaan. Arman was very smart he called at the post-mortem department and tried to manipulate the manager and report over money. He was successful doing so. But he had to do something about Mr. Tushar as he was someone who was very loyal and can't be manipulated. He considered the relations to be the most precious position of his life and he was someone who could drain his blood out to bring out the truth about his best friend's death. So now the fearful mind of Armaan was so disturbed that he could not think of anything else than killing Mr.Tushar. very next day of this discussion Mr.Tushar is going to the business meeting to new Delhi. This time Arman couldn't think of murdering him instantly because of his popularity and his fear of getting caught so he decides to appoint someone to do the murder. He makes a plan to kill Mr. Tushar in a car accident.

As he was going to attend the New Delhi conference he will have to reach to the airport at 9 am so Armaan explains the murderer that he has to kill him in an accident and he explains him about the timing and the airport route from Mr. Tushar's house to the airport. The plan was all clear to the murderer as explained he reaches Mr. Tushar's place at 8:30 and waits for him to come out once Mr.tushar and his son Mr.rohan sit in the car and start driving towards the airport he follows them and waits for the perfect location to hit the car. He smashes his car with Mr.Tushar's car in such a way that Mr. Tushar dies on the spot. The murderer flees away with his car. In such a situation Rohan could not think of anything. He knew about the discussion between Armaan and his dad and the running away of the opposite car driver created a doubt in his mind of whether it was a murder or the actual car accident he secretly completes all the rituals of his father's death and deep down he feared of even him being murdered after once the Armaan gets to now about the secret that was shared by his father and him. His disturbed mind could not think of anything else than going far from the city for few months. But even with his this decision he was in a plan to prove Armaan as the criminal and murderer of the two best friends.

Vikram's office had a hidden camera, which was installed on tushar's advice and the footage information was only with vikram and tushar. But when Tushar shared about his doubts with Rohan, He had given the information to rohan.

When Smit and Sahil come to know about Mr. Tushar's death this information was one of the most disappointing news for them. They come to India as soon as possible for the rituals. When they meet rohan in private, Rohan talks to both of them and reveals the secret and explain them about the murders of their father's death. Sahil and Smit was so shocked and aghast to hear this that they could not believe it at once as they thought of their uncle to be the most loyal person in their family. The back to back evidences by Rohan made them believe in him and both of them decided to take revenge. Rohan too joined them to complete the mission against Armaan and to reveal the secrets and to make people aware who actually Armaan was and most importantly to get the justice for his father's death. Three of them did everything they could by hiring the best detective and, putting in their brains and hearts to collect the evidences and appointed the best lawyer to prove and get their uncle convicted. They filed a case against Armaan and proved him to be a murderer. The hidden security camera had caught Armaan adding something in the drink. they even consulted the head of the post-mortem department and complained about his corrupt employer as well as got the original report of Mr. Vikram's death. The proof 's were very apt to prove Mr. Armaan guilty and judge passed the verdict against Mr.Arman and he was given the punishment of death sentence.